photographic note cards,
posters & prints

Who We Are

December's Rose, llc blossomed many years ago in New Jersey. The name is derived from a truly phenomenal rose that bloomed from a lone bud saved from the frost in mid December, 1987.

My inspiration came from a beautiful Siberian Husky named Lesea in 1982. The first card I developed was one with her image as a puppy with the saying 'The Innocence of Youth...' on the front. The inside of the card was blank - and still is. I believe cards make a personal statement - therefore I let the images inspire the customer to use their own words."

What We Do

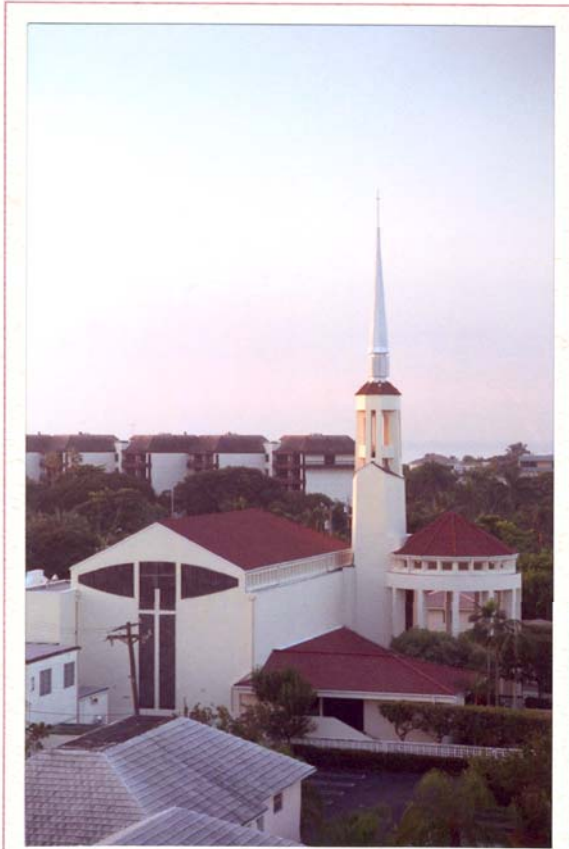

Offering over 600 original images, both traditional and watercolor, December's Rose, llc reaches out to the most discerning buyers - those who can appreciate a good quality item - even if it is not available at 'bargain basement' pricing.

With the help of several artists, December's Rose, llc creates some of the most beautiful note cards, prints and posters available. The images span the spectrum from flowers to landscapes to animals.

We also offer seasonal note cards for Halloween, Thanksgiving, Hanukkah and Christmas. They are available with either traditional sentiments or the customer can have their own words inscribed for a small fee.

Our Traditional Note Cards

Assembled by hand, these cards have the look and feel of a matted print.

The photos are secured in natural recycled card stock. Each photo is matched with a complimentary color border on the card stock. The back of each card has the photographers name & image title.

Our photographic note cards are sold in boxed sets of 10 cards & envelopes.

Prints & Posters

Prints:

The beauty & vibrant colors of our images are brought to life when printed on Fuji Crystal Archival paper. All materials used are rated for archival quality and maximum longevity.

Posters:

True to life colors are spectacular when images are printed on 7-mil satin, semi-gloss, photo paper. This material can be laminated and/or mounted for added durability. For added longevity, frame under non-glare glass.

Holiday Note Cards

*Have a Warm & Cuddly
Holiday Season*

*Wishing You a Warm
& Happy Hanukkah*

Beautiful Flowers, Beautiful Thoughts Happy Thanksgiving!!

Choose from over 30 different images. Our Holiday Cards are available in boxed sets containing 12 cards & 12 envelopes. Card stock is either white or natural. The white cards have a black or green border; borders on natural cards are complimentary to the images. Envelopes match the card stock color. Cards are packaged in a white box with clear top & gold tie. The back of the cards are pre-printed with the title of the image, the photographers name, copyright, company name and web address.

*Merry Christmas &
Happy New Year*

Happy Halloween!!

View Our Inventory Online

Our images are stored in online galleries by photographer. Putting thumbnails of the images into a printed catalog does not do them justice. We have found that the best way to view the images is to visit our website at <http://www.decembersrose.com> . Click any image to enter the website.

In the 'Site Map', click on 'artists & their images'. That will bring you to the main gallery page. Click on the individual artists and browse their images. All images available for sale are 'clickable' so that you can see an enlarged version of the image.

Keep in mind that these are low resolution versions of the images (72dpi). The actual prints are of a much higher quality (300-400dpi).

How to Order

using our Inventory Worksheet as a guide

1. Find an image in the galleries, which are arranged by Artist
2. Cross-reference that image on the inventory worksheet, which is also arranged by Artist
3. Indicate the items you would like to purchase
4. Once you've made your choices, transfer that info to the order form
5. Mail the completed order form to us
6. We accept all major credit cards, money orders and checks
